Reaction: This is NOT a summary. This section represents how you feel about the book. Identify at least three things that stood out for you in this publication, e.g. empathy, tenacity, leadership ability, motivation, the characters, etc.

Implications: Based on what you have read, what is implied? State what you believe will or can change as a result of you and others reading this book. Things to consider include but are not limited to feelings, behaviors, legislation and/or litigation, etc.

Service Learning: Describe instances in the book that serve as examples of the ABCD theory of service learning; service, capacity building, and advocacy (see below). Which example(s) parallels the type of volunteer work you plan to do? Explain how they are similar.

Service = Giving of one's time.

Capacity Building = Bringing something to the community that is not currently existing in the community.

Advocacy = Compassion related service.

Due Date: The Friday following Spring Break of Sophomore year.

*Essay should be submitted (hard copy) to the Student Life Office.
